WOW! I can't believe Thanksgiving just ended, and the December holiday season is here. I wish all club members a Happy Holiday!

Our club's favorite and popular Wine Run took place on November 17th. We had a great turnout with everyone having a wonderful time. Who would have thought the two most popular items would be root beer floats and rye whiskey.

Our next and last event of the year is the annual Holiday Party, which will be held on December 7th at El Torito in La Mesa. Come on down and have a great time. Who knows, we may have some special guests. Don't forget to bring a gift for the Toy Drive and/or gift exchange.

The ZCSD Board will be meeting this month to layout and schedule events for the coming year. Pass on to any board member events, activities, or runs you would like the club to hold.

I want to thank board members Donn, Dennis, Patty, Wally, Chuck, Lenny, Sheri, Rich, and David G. for their hard work in making this year a club success. I'm looking forward to continuing to make ZCSD the most active Z car club.

Now, let's drive those Z's.

Michael

NOVEMBER 17 TH
RAMONA WINE-BREW-STILLERY TOUR & LUNCH

A new twist on an old favorite. The usual meetup at the Bernardo Winery found 12 cars ready to make the trip. So it was on to one of our favorites, Turtle Rock Ridge Winery with the beautiful patio and amazing views. After a glass of Sangria it was off to the Smoking Cannon Brewery, where there were raves about the Pale Ale... But the biggest seller was the Root Beer Float! Yummm. Then we all headed down the road to Manana for delicious Mexican fast food. After lunch it was off to San Diego Sunshine Craft Spirits. Exotic fruity cocktails awaited some, but the big seller was the RYE Whisky.
