With summer finally here, I hope everyone is exercising their Z's.

Now that June 15th has passed and the governor has loosened most of the COVID restriction, we hope to return to our regular meeting location once Denny's allows us. Until that happens, we will continue to meet in one of the Mission Bay parks. Check for updates in the club newsletter and email blasts.

The club's 30th-anniversary celebration will occur at Bates Nut Farm on July 18th at approximately 11:00 am. The format will be like previous club picnics. There may be a surprise for all club members. I hope everyone can attend. I will be leaving the Coffee and Datsun in Carmel Ranch for Bates Nuts Fam around 10:00 am for those of you who like to caravan.

Coffee and Datsuns will be meeting at 8:00 am on July 18th. Come and show your Datsuns and Nissans.

Be healthy, be safe!

Z you on the road.

Michael

Bakhshandeh:
2008-2010

- The first club president that did not own a Z!
- She made it her mission to get the club back on sound financial grounds.

- She also got many of the member wives and girlfriends involved in club activities.

Peter Grubb: 2011

- Peter was the 2nd club president without a Z—Only because someone had T-Boned his Z!
- He made it a point at the club meetings to keep us well informed on the goings-on with the Corvette and Ferrari crowd.
