With February weather being more like summer than winter, I hope everyone was able to get out and drive their Z's during the warm weather.

March is dues renewal month. Please bring your dues to the meeting or mail them in if you cannot attend the meeting.

In February we had two runs, one to K-1 for cart racing, congratulations Clif, and the Johnnie and Mr. K Fun Run. This year's run went from Dana Point to Idyllwild to Roy's Motel on Route 66, to the Grand Canyon and finally to Oatman. Fun was had by all at both events.

This month's event will be a drive to Borrego Springs to see the flowers, if there are any, and desert sculptures on Saturday, March 19th. A bring your own lunch will be held in Christmas Circle. Event details later in this newsletter.

Be healthy, be safe!

Z you on the road.

Michael

This month I will continue describing the benefits on being a member of the Club:

Motorsport has your Z parts covered. They are in Orange, CA. They have a wide selection of parts. When you call for the 1st time, mention you're a member of ZCSD and you would like to get the clubs' discount. That should take care of it, but on your next order after they take your info, ask did my Z club discount take effect? If you make orders online the discount will also be applied the next time you order.

Ed Hanson's Muffler Service in Spring Valley (619.698.7030). They do excellent work and Joe, the technician, is an excellent welder (the whole crew is). They are big on Catalytic Converter replacement. They have universal converters that they custom fit. I have had my 300ZX and my GMC van converters replaced. They take care of all their client's needs and are very reasonable. Just let them know you're a ZCSD member. Ed sold the business a few years ago but the personnel are still there.

FEBRUARY 1ST, GENERAL MEETING

Guest Speaker:

February Meeting Continued

ZCSD K1 SPEED CHALLENGE AND LUNCH AT CUATRO MILPAS
FEBRUARY 12TH, 2022

The February event was held at the K1 Karting race track in San Diego. We had four racers and several fans in the bleachers rooting them on. Rob Johnson and his wife Kim had the longest commute from Menifee, CA. Luckily, Michele Ruppert had the shortest, because she had to backtrack to get her racing shoes. Greg and Judy Carlton brought lots of excitement, and Greg decided the odds looked good, so he signed up to race along with Clif Yaussi, Michele, and Rob. Chuck Golden and John Hunter oversaw the festivities that concluded with the presentation of ribbons and a trophy

Judy did the honors as presenter, Kim did the photography and story by Clif.

February 12th K1 Speed Challenge Cont.

First Place went to Clif, second to Greg and third to Michele.

Everyone enjoyed a lunch at Cuatro Milpas up on Logan Ave. Food was hot and spicy and after a fun filled day, everyone dragged themselves back to their cars for the ride home.
