As I write this month's message, it is the first day of spring with a little rain. Hopefully, we will get spring showers this year as we defiantly need the rain.

March's run to Borrego Springs to see the desert flowers (did not see any) and sculptors was fantastic. The weather was warm but not too warm and a couple of the 13 cars had their tops down. Lunch in Christmas Circle was wonderful on green grass and in the shade of the trees.

This month's event will be a beautiful drive up the coastline with lunch at the iconic 101 Café. A great run to see the ocean and feel the ocean breeze. Event details later in this newsletter.

I'm looking for anyone who would be willing to manage the club's presence on Facebook. If interested, please contact me.

Be healthy, be safe!

Z you on the road.

Michael

Will be the speaker

(And unfortunately I won't be there)

ZCSD BORREGO SPRINGS
PICNIC, SCULPTURE & WILDFLOWER CRUZ
MARCH 19TH, 2022

Clif really knows how to put a great Cruz together. You couldn't ask for better weather (and the very next day there was rain)!

The meet-up was very convenient and easy to find, right off the I-15 freeway and 12 cars of members and guests left pretty much on time. There were 8 Zs and 4 other vehicles (Corvette, Tesla, Miata & Escape). After a quick stop in Ramona for Dennis' BMW we were on the road. NOTE: I was assured that all the non-Z drivers actually owned a Z, many of which are still undergoing restoration and/or the drivers just wanted to get another car out on the road for some miles.

The next stop was Dudley's where many picked up sandwiches for the picnic. Bread, sweet rolls and drinks were also purchased there. Then it was on to the Montezuma Grade and a photo opportunity at the overlook.

March 19th Borrego Springs Cruz Cont.

On to Christmas Circle, Borrego Springs for a picnic on the grass with plenty of shade and parking for our cars. After lunch, Clif led us out into the hinterlands to see the sculptures. Then a general disbursement, home-ward bound. All in all it was a beautiful way to spend a day enjoying your cars.

Thanks, Clif.
