Another hot and muggy summer is almost over. Whoever turned the humidifier on, please turn it off as I am tired of being wringing wet just walking to my car. Hope everyone is enjoying time with their family and Z cars.

Last month's run to fresh air, mountain views and trees was enjoyed by 11 cars. What a great run that started hot and ended in the cool mountain air. A free car wash (rain shower) was included. Lunch at Idyllwild Pizza was good as always.

September is the month for apple picking, apple pie and a trip back in time. The club will be driving to the Eagle Mine for a trip back in time and then maybe apple pie. Details later in this newsletter.

Be healthy, be safe!

Z you on the road.

I would like to welcome Al Molano to the club. Al was at our last month's meeting. He just purchased a 1979 280ZX Copper color. Al has lots of questions about his Z car, I assured him he will find the answer threw members of the club.

This past year, starting in December we have had a number of new members join and old members get active with the club.

This helps the club maintain the largest Z club in California. It's kind of like family at the events and fun. We have a run up to Julian for the gold mine, which I plan on going to. I missed the last time the club went.

GENERAL MEETING

AUGUST 2, 2022

GENERAL MEETING — CONTINUED

IDYLLWILD DRIVE & LUNCH

AUG. 13, 2022

First meet-up was at Westfield North County
Mall.

We got underway
and drove about 17
scenic back-road
miles to the Barn in Ramona.

*Pictures by;
Clif, Michael,
Dennis, Patty, Marcy and Marcia*

IDYLLWILD DRIVE & LUNCH — CONTINUED

At The Barn in Ramona, we had several more cars join up. Here is where we had a formal Drivers Meeting with instructions for the rest of the day.

Then it was off again for 14 beautiful miles to Dudley's for a rest and Bakery stop.

From Dudley's it was back on the road, where the clouds began to accumulate over the next 35 miles to Hwy 371.

As we began our final 73 miles up to Idyllwild, the clouds got more menacing with some distant flashes of lightning...

Then the sprinkles turned into downpours, with more lightening flashing all around—luckily NO hail.

Then the sun reappeared
and the sky cleared.

Everyone enjoyed lunch at Idyllwild Pizza Company and a tour of the town.

Thank you Dennis & Clif for a great drive, a great day.
