I hope everyone had a wonderful and safe Thanksgiving with family and friends.

The club's popular Wine Run took place on Saturday, November 5th. I was unable to attend but I heard Dennis and Carol put on a great lunch. Those attending had a fantastic time.

Our last event of the year is the annual Holiday Party, which will be held on December 3rd at El Torito in La Mesa. Come on down and have a great time. Who knows, we may have some special guests. Don't forget to bring a gift for the Toy Drive and/or gift exchange. An event flyer is later in this newsletter.

The ZCSD Board will be meeting next month to lay out and schedule events for the coming year. Please pass on to any board member events, activities, or runs you would like the club to do.

I want to thank board members Clif, Dennis, Patty, Wally, Chuck, Lenny, Sheri and Carl Cook for their hard work in making 2022 a club success. I'm looking forward to continuing to make ZCSD the most active Z car club.

Now, let's drive those Z's.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

Carlton Gasior Update

November 20, 2022

I have some great news! My Oncologist said that I was technically in remission. I still have monthly treatments until about July. My last set of scans did not show any evidence of cancer progression and was showing shrinking of the large known metastases. Gail and I decided to get a camper but we needed a truck first, so we got a truck. Ford F-250 Super Duty with the TREMOR off road package because that's where we go, off road to camp. We're going to get a slide in pop up camper that goes in the bed of the truck. It's fully independent and can be used without the truck, so we can set up camp and drive to the trailhead or the store to resupply if needed without having to pack up everything. I'm so very grateful this Thanksgiving for all my friends, family, my doctors, and the SCIENCE that has given me the strength to fight this disease. I hope everyone has a wonderful holiday.

Love to all,

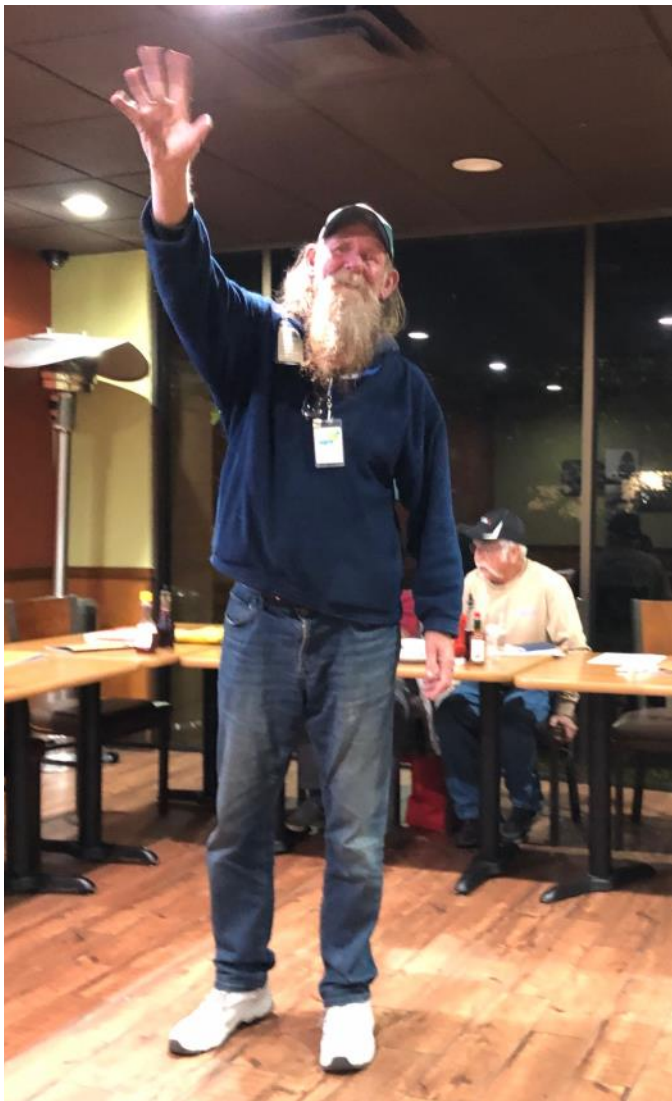

Carlton

ZCSD wine tour 2022

We started the Ramona wine tour this year at Orfila Vineyard in Escondido. This was an impressive place with a large tasting room and many shaded areas to sip on some wine and enjoy the view of many acres of grapes growing. Orfila Vineyard opened in 1994 and has been the recipient of more than 1300 medals in national competitions. We had about 8 cars on the run and after we had sampled some of the great wines we were off to Ramona for lunch. This year we were invited to the horse ranch of Dennis and Carol for a wonderful Indian cuisine lunch that was catered by Bombay Coast Indian restaurant. After lunch we had a visit with the Grace and Chadwick our resident friesian horses and got to feed them some treats and give them some attention. The weather was beautiful and we all had a great time enjoying the view from the front yard and socializing. We only made it to one winery but it was one of the biggest vineyards in the Escondido and Ramona areas. Every year the wine tour is a little different so don't miss next year's wine run and maybe we will be invited back to the ranch.
