DOHENY ALL DATSUN NISSAN BBQ AND FOOD DRIVE

The weather was perfect on Halloween day for the drive up to Doheny State Beach and the All Datsun BBQ. The park was nearly empty except for us and a few campers. Although our group was small, there was lots of great food to eat, and great conversation was shared by all. Michael Manginelli, president of Group Z, did the honors at the Grill. And plenty of canned goods were collected for the food drive benefiting the San Diego Food Bank!

PETER AT THE SEMA SHOW

Hi fellow Z members!

It's your friendly neighborhood secretary giving you a little report about SEMA (Specialty Equipment Manufacturers Association) and a few pics, too. It was my first year going, so I didn't know what to expect.

The convention was located in the Las Vegas Convention Center and another show called APPEX was in the Sands convention center. We were there for three days: arrived on Tuesday and left Thursday. It was all walking! Saw some great stuff and got some good autographs. Couldn't believe all the cool cars: the one-offs and even limited production ones that will come out! It was all about the Camaro this year. Toyota even had their supercar, the LFA there. Yes I know it's a Lexus brand but it's still a overpriced Toyota.

I had a great time and I wasn't disappointed. I will go again next year.

Peter Grubb

EMPIRE Z CAR SHOW

Once again, Corona Nissan hosted the Empire Z Car Show. There were lots of roadsters as well all vintages of Z's: everything from all original, to fully restored, to highly modified, with all manner of engine swaps. It's great to see how people restore and modify their cars!

PETE'S

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

The November Meeting was a small one. There were some newcomers also. Melody announced that she will stay on for one more year. Peter Grubb will take over the Vice President's chair from Don Austin. Debbie Dreischmeyer will take over as secretary, Michael Montag will stay on as Treasurer. Clif Yaussi will still do Membership. Hugh Clark will do the newsletter for one more year. We still need an Events Coordinator, as well as someone to handle the club's merchandise. I Hope to see a bigger group at the next meeting, now that the pressure is off of finding a new president. :)
