The Vice PreZ Sez...

Hi fellow Z members,

This column will be short and sweet since I had car trouble and was not able to join the last general meeting. That's what happens when you have a 7 year old car with about 150,000 miles on it. I love Nissans.

I hope everybody who went on the Bottom Buster Tour had fun. Hopefully we'll see some pics from the tour at our general meetings soon.

Couple of reminders for events coming up locally and abroad. For us we have the museum tour coming up, hopefully you have registered for that. There are a couple of car shows coming in May. One is going to be the ZCCIV 2010 8th Annual Car Show up at Quality Nissan in Temecula. The date for this is May 30th. The other one is Plastic Fantastic May Sixteenth. This is an all corvette show at the Embarcadero near Sea Port Village.

I'm planning an event for August. You know that the first run of the year I call the Over E Z run, we do a run and have breakfast. So for August I'm going to do a Z Lunch Run. One of our fellow club members suggested a run up Pacific Coast Highway. So we are going to Pacific Coast Highway towards Oceanside and have some lunch and enjoy the day. More Info to follow.

Now I have a favor to ask all Z members of ZCSD. Next year is the 20 year birthday of the club. It will happen in July of 2011. I want to do something fun for the club, an event of some sort. I need suggestions. I will take all ideas from everybody. Please throw ideas my way and I will bring this up in next general meeting

BOTTOM BUSTER MOTOR TOUR

The 2010 Bottom Buster Car Tour was April 12-14, starting at the famous Rose Bowl in Pasadena. This year, 7 vintage cars 30 years or older, headed out of town for 900 miles of curving roads. Beautiful scenery this time of year is everywhere along the rolling hills of the central California coast. Lunch found drivers and navigators checking the afternoons route. We stayed in Paso Robles, and the next day, headed for the scenic views along Hwy 1 toward Big Sur. Breakdowns are part of the adventure, but everyone made the banquet dinner Tuesday night. Wednesday found some cars headed straight home, while most followed the route to more hidden gems of famous and not so famous destinations.

I'd like to thank ZCSD members Wally & Patty Cook for all the effort they put in to make this years run a great one. Also along from ZCSD were Jerry Peterson and his navigator Angelo, and Clif Yaussi navigating for Henry Smith's 1962 Austin Healey.

UNIVERSAL NISSAN 40th ANNIVERSARY

Nissan's 40th Anniversary Celebration was held April 17 with festivities kicking off from the Datsun Heritage Museum in Murrieta, CA. Over 40 cars showed up to tour the museum and eat free donuts and coffee. At 10:30 Mike Sage, owner of Universal City Nissan lead the group on a Bonsai run up the freeway to his dealership. Z cars were everywhere when we arrived, and the free lunch, t-shirts and a gift box (key ring and pen) were a big hit. A radio station D.J. spun the tunes, a Z Concept Car was on display, plus the unveiling of the new 40th Anniversary Nismo 370Z. A drawing at 2:30 for several prizes ended the great day of driving and mingling with other Z car enthusiasts. Thanks to Fred and Betty Jordan of the Z Car Club of Inland Valley for all they do to keep the Datsun Heritage Museum a must see treasure. Also great to have Johnnie Gable, Pat and Debbie Connolly, Mike Montag, Clif and Marcia Yaussi, Dennis Darnall, Patty and Wally Cook along for the trip.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

Wow – sounds like if you missed the Palm Springs run, you missed a great time; great weather capped off with a great BBQ. Even if you missed that one, we have several more great runs planned over the next couple of months so check the schedule and make sure you get signed up and get your Z rev'n for fun in the sun.

We had some new guests checking out the club so hopefully we will be adding to our membership. So far we have had a great response from our survey that was sent out with the renewals. If you didn't yet get yours in, please do so – everyone's comments help to make our club the best it can be. Hope to see you at the next run or meeting!
