The Vice PreZ Sez...

Hello there Fellow Z members, I want to say welcome to any new members of our club. July is upon us and that means movie night, Yea. A great way to meet and introduce yourself to the members of the club and to watch a great movie from your car.

I'm hoping everybody who did the June events had a good time. I heard there were not too many members who went on the Big Bear run but those who went had a great time. Lets have a bigger turn out next year. The Auto Museum in Balboa Park had the open house for the exhibit for Datsun/Nissan display. One of our members took some pictures of the event and hopefully will show them off at our next general meeting.

Of course lets not forget about August events. The Z lunch run up the Pacific Highway ends in Oceanside for some lunch, Dyno Day/Barbeque at the Dyno Shop in Santee and the El Cajon Car Cruise. I'm looking forward to seeing you all at these events.

You don't want to miss these.

See you at the meeting
VP Grubbs

~

DATSUN EXHIBIT AT THE SAN DIEGO AUTOMOTIVE MUSEUM

MORE DATSUN EXHIBIT

Something to See!!

The San Diego Automotive Museum in Balboa Park now has "Datsun/Nissan The American Story" on display til September 2010. This show was the brain child of Fred Jordan, Z Car Club of Inland Valley member, and founder of the Datsun Heritage Museum in Murrieta.

Several ZCSD members attended the opening reception June 12th. Dave Platt and Ginger, Clif and Marcia Yaussi, David Gonzalez, Johnnie Gable, John Parker, Pat and Debbie Connolly, Bill and Linda Yancey were on hand with many other Z car enthusiast including former club member Ben Pila and Datsun roadster specialist Les Cannaday. ZCCIV had a large contingent of people and several Datsun/Nissan magazines covered the event. Mr. K was to speak to the group via Skype but the connection didn't work out. We did hear from him via cell phone as the party was winding down. As the pictures will attest, there was more to the exhibit than cars. Mr. K's love for kites was a theme carried out overhead. Great Japanese food, a welcome by the Museum's director, and a short talk by Fred Jordan highlighted the event. Also the presentation of a portrait of Fred and Betty Jordan and his beloved 10th Anniversary Car were made to them by the ZCCIV.

The gift shop at the museum has Datsun/Nissan related items for sale, some, rare and collectible.

EMPIRE Z MOUNTAIN CRUZ TO BIG BEAR

BIG BEAR RUN

Sunday morning June 13 was the Run to Big Bear hosted by the Empire Z club of Redlands. This years gathering was smaller than last year, but the weather was beautiful and the traffic was light, so all in all it was a great day.

Our band of warriors met at the Carroll Canyon meeting spot and then headed for the north county. Mike and Gloria were to meet us there, but a dental emergency put them behind schedule. Michael Montag had a medical issue also, so he dropped out of the pack and Clif and Marcia Yaussi set off to meet up with Empire Z. As the caravan headed for the mountains, Mike and Gloria were able to catch up, and headed up the highway to Big Bear with the group.

A great lunch at Paoli's Pizza, beautiful scenery, fun twisty roads and a love of the Z car made this a memorable day. Thanks to the Empire Z club of including us in their event. Also thanks to the ZCSD for picking up the lunch tab for our members.

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

Welcome to summer! We're going to have great weather for all the events we have planned. If you missed the last meeting, we recapped all the events we have and we have a lot – which equals a lot of fun for all. If you can't make an event, just wait and there will be another one coming around the corner. Here's always a favorite – Drive-In Movie Night – we always have a good turnout for that. It's one of my favorite events. We also are having another winery run event coming up. I had to miss the first one in February so I'm really looking forward to the next one. We had a great turn out for the meeting and lots of enthusiasm for the upcoming events. Remember, we are looking to always come up with events that are going to interest our members. It would be nice, and extremely helpful, if we could find someone or two who would like to be the event coordinator. This would really help our club. If you or anyone you know is interested, please contact Mel or Peter. Thank you – see you next trip!

Secretary Debby

We want to celebrate Dave Platt's return to health after back surgery. He looks and sounds 10 years younger than he has the last two painful years. Now he's the ribbing, wry fellow we know and love. Ginger, keep him on a short leash.
