The Vice PreZ Sez...

Hello Fellow Z members,

Welcome to the October issues of Vice Prez says.

September has come and gone. Hopefully a few of you ventured up to the Queen Mary and took in the Japanese Classic Car Show and also took in the sights and sounds of the Coronado Speed Festival.

Myself I did not attend the Japanese Classic Car Show. I did take in the Coronado Speed Festival. There were lost of Datsun 510's this year and also 240Z was in one of the fields. Always great to see the old cars race again.

For the events of October we have the Doheny Beach Picnic that you could attend. I was going to plan a lunch run to the east but because of circumstances beyond my control there is not one planned. We do have the Winery run in November and the annual Xmas Party in December. Please if any one has an event they want to do bring it up at the meetings and we'll see what we can do.

Another reminder for nominating people for officer positions. I do know VP is open, I'm not sure on the rest. Please participate to keep this club going.

Thank You and I'll see you at the meetings
VP Grubbs

MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

Peter opened the meeting telling us that his car was hit in an accident and was totaled. He then talked about the August North County 101 Breakfast Cruz, dyno day, and events coming up in during the rest of the year. Then Lenny talked about the ZCCA convention that was held in Nashville Tenn. celebrating the 40th anniversary of the Z car. There were over 700 attendees. The most ever at a ZCCA Convention.
