After writing out the newsletter I would think that you'd want me to go away by now.

The Wednesday night walk though the classic car cruise seemed to go over well though I was under the weather and could not attend. Looks like that will happen again.

The Z's are wild poker run has come together and the Death Valley run is fast approaching.

Our WEB SITE
seems pretty sick
wounded by HACK-ERS, sorry but that one I have no control over. If anyone would like to take a shot at being our Webmaster
it would be greatly appreciated

The Classic car show in El Cajon, our Wednesday night walk about through some very nice, though not Z cars, Classics. We will do this again.

OUR LAST EVENT The Cajon Classic Cruise was the setting for our August event. We had a modest turnout of seven cars, but that was enough for a really nice time! After a quick bite at the Greek Chicken Place in El Cajon, we were off to cruise as a group down Main Street, then we parked and walked around, enjoying the balmy summer evening, and the great hot rods, muscle cars, classics, and motorcycles being shown. This night's special event was Charger Steve's Starz Cars, showcasing such classics as the Bat Mobile from "Batman Returns" and the Crown Victoria from "Men in Black" as well as other favorites from "Smokey and the Bandit" the "Dukes of Hazard" and much more. (Did you know that over 300 1969 Dodge Chargers were destroyed during the seven years that the Dukes were on TV?) We ended the evening with a talk about coming back next year. We might want to reserve a spot to show off our club's stuff! If you're interested, let us hear about it. Thanks again to all who came out for the event, and we look forward to seeing you all at September's event, the "Z's Are Wild Poker Run. (Look for details in this newsletter.)

THE FRANCHISE ISSUE

The legend of 'Mr. K'

Automotive News /

Nissan's Yutaka Katayama:
"Mr. K." to friends

Yutaka Katayama was the point man for the launch of Nissan Motor Co.'s Datsun brand in the United States in the 1960s. His American associates called him "Mr. K."

Katayama fiercely fought the company's Japanese headquarters on product matters.

For example, he renamed the Fairlady sports car the 240Z for the U.S. market. He also demanded higher dealer discounts - 17 percent, compared with the 13 percent common to American brands.

"If the dealer makes money, we make money," he declared. Yet he had trouble recruiting dealers.

"The American dealers were very busy with their own business and had no ear to listen to some funny new Asian car salesman," Katayama recalled in a recent interview.

"So I visited used-car dealers and foreign-car dealers. I thought I should develop our network like a mold, stealthily extending its hand all over."

When Katayama returned to Japan several years later, he placed a U.S. map on his office wall. The map was filled with dots. Each dot represented a long-shot entrepreneur who had had gambled on the Datsun franchise and become a millionaire in the process.

For the rest of the story about the history, growth and future of the dealer franchise system in the United States, don't miss the Sept. 25 special issue of Automotive News:

Some times you just need "Z" Therapy.

Last night, after working 7 days straight with no fun in between, Sheri's working at Sea World the Padre's had all ready won their ball game earlier in the day,,, I needed something!!!!!!

I un-wrapped the Turbo and took off for the East County. The further I drove the more the car and I seemed to become one. No Radio, no cell phone, no distractions, just me and the Z.

I can see why the book Ron Sessions wrote is called Lust then Love. I do love driving this car and I have been behind this wheel for fifteen years and some 400,000 miles. I love the feel, the power, the looks she gets and the enviable looks the people that pass give me. Yes I said pass me,, I am waiting for route 79 to Julian.

Dara my friend and mechanic has got my suspension WORKING BABY.

I get off the interstate on to the 79, the party's about to begin. I make the first turn towards Julian and we are off. The motor is loving the exercise, the suspension feels like Velcro on the road, the only hang-up is the occasional ninny in front that is just a mere obstacle and is quickly disposed of,, we are driven.

I am cruisin what used to be the most beautiful area till the idiot with the matches took it from us, but it is on the way back, looking alive again. Still I would love to drag him behind my car while I am driving tonight.

The sun is setting and causing the scenery to change by the moment, don't really need sun glasses, nice. Even in the burnt things there is beauty and a lesson to be learned. I pass a burnt skeleton of a small pine tree that used to line the side of the road, it had such promise, it has only a single pine cone hanging form a branch to keep it's memory company, sad.

But I need to remember I am driving to heal my wounds this time so I should look for the beauty in what I am doing.

As the journey wends on I am really enjoying the Z's sticky ride then it happens,, those orange road work signs, what is this, a new road, yep it's brand new and COVERED WITH SAND . There goes the neighborhood. I still had some more miles that were fun after I got through Julian and they'll be more days like this, you can count on that... ..

Z's ARE WILD POKER RUN

On September 24th we will be resurrecting the ever popular East County Poker Run. You will find a detailed set of driving instructions in this newsletter. We will begin our day at 9:30 a.m. at the Burger King off of Lake Jennings Road, and we will hit the road at 10:00 sharp. The run will end at Clif and Marsha Yaussi's home in El Cajon, where the Club will provide a light lunch, and the ever-present DEATH-BY-CHOCOLATE CAKE! We will caravan together, enjoying the gorgeous East County scenery, and stopping at a couple of classic Southern California landmarks. If you've never been to the top of the Desert View Lookout Tower, this will be your chance to enjoy a truly spectacular view! The run will take approximately three hours, including time for stops. The ante for your poker hand will be $20.00, with the opportunity to improve your hand by purchasing extra cards for $5.00 each at the end of the run. The winning pot will be up to $100.00, depending on the number of people participating. So come on out for a day of classic club fun. Z YOU THERE!
