Established in 1991 by the owner of Z-Whizz, the Z CLUB OF SAN DIEGO is a group of Datsun / Nissan Z enthusiasts dedicated to the NISSAN marquee. As a Charter member of the National Z Car Club Association its sole purpose is to promote interest in Zs through social activities, touring outings and charitable events.

Persons interested in upholding the same ideals toward Zs are encouraged to join the ZCSD. Annual dues for new and continuing members are $30/member, $15 for associate members. Full members receive ZCSD discounts at participating parts and/or service dealers, receive the monthly newsletter, and may participate in monthly club events. All-Datsun Beach BBQ & Food Drive

Doheny State Beach
Sunday Nov 5th from 11am to dusk

Come join us for an All-Datsun Beach BBQ at Doheny State Beach. This is an informal gathering, so there won't be any reserved parking of any kind. (But the beach isn't nearly as crowded this time of year.) So bring your family, some picnic chairs, sun-screen and come hang out with us! The fun starts around 11am, the BBQ fires will be lit at noon and the fun ends at sundown. We'll have Hamburgers, Hot-Dogs, Chips and Drinks!

The BBQ is free, but we ask that all participants bring a can of non-perishable food, so we can make a donation to the San Diego Food Bank on behalf of the clubs involved.

Please R.S.V.P by Oct 30th to Sebastian Hill at

Caught - 2008 Nissan Skyline GT-R!!

Filed Under: Auto News, Japan, Coupes, Supercars, Nissan, Spy Shots, Future Vehicles October 9th, 2006 5:32 PM

The enthusiast world has been waiting for the next Nissan Skyline for some time now, particularly American enthusiasts, who are set to get their first factory-sanctioned taste of the performance legend when it makes it into US showrooms for the first time.

Looking very close to the sensational GTR-Proto concept shown back in 2005 at the Tokyo Motor Show, the 2008 Skyline appears to be in its final stages of development, as evidenced by these KGP Photography shots of the car caught testing at the Nürburgring.

While all previous Skylines were sedan-derived, the new model will reportedly gain its own two-door architecture, which bodes well for the car from a performance standpoint.

Prevailing rumors have the car taking on a 3.8-liter twin-turbo V-6, itself derived from the engine in the 350Z. Power boogies put the mill in the range of 450 horsepower and 370 pound-feet of twist. In true Skyline fashion, the car will be all-wheel-drive, with a further evolution of the GT-R's electronic ATTESA ET-S torque-sensing system, tied into a four-wheel steering system.

All of which should be good for a 0-60 miles-per-hour time of well under 4 seconds, and a top speed somewhere on the ambitious end of 180 mph.

Interested parties might want to start inquiring with their local Nissan dealers now.

On a Sad Note

We have lost one of our own

Elizabeth Hill, we knew her as "Betty"

For those of us that were lucky enough to have known her you realized that Z people come to us in all ages.

Usually it's a Guy thing to own a Z car and the wife is telling us to get a new car and stop messin around trying to keep that 'ol Z on the road.

If you knew Betty you'd know that you didn't ever think about trying to talk her out of her "Sweet Thang" she loved that car and enjoy the people in the Z club.

Betty will be missed.....
