With only one more month of summer, I hope everyone continues to exercise their Z's and enjoy the warm, maybe too warm, weather.

This month we will have our first indoor meeting at Denny's in 17 months. So come on down and get reacquainted with old friends and maybe even make new ones. Now we will no longer be trying to communicate over picnic parties, aircraft and cars on the freeway.

The club's 30th-anniversary celebration at Bates Nut Farm was a resounding success with great conversation and many raffle winners. Besides the usual hamburgers, hot dogs, and brats, there was an excellent variety of sides, including three different types of potato salad.

On August 15th, come out and support Datsuns and Coffee and see some fantastic old-school cars.

Be healthy, be safe!

Z you on the road.

Michael

The clubs picnic at Bates Nut Farm was a fun event. The trees provided the shade and the humidity was tolerable. It was great to have a large turnout and to be able to shoot the breeze with everyone. Neil won plenty with the fifty-fifty drawing and both Neil and Carlton raked in plenty of shirts with their raffle tickets.

Aug 3, this coming Tuesday we will be meeting at Denny's for our monthly meeting. Hope to see the club back in action. Barring any state mandates.

Z ya soon Chuck
