SEZ THE PREZ

I'm hoping the April showers we just had will bring us some May flowers and maybe even some more rain.

Last month's run was fantastic with weather that only San Diego is known for. Not too hot and not too cold with no clouds in the sky. Just sunshine illuminating the entire route. There were beautiful seven (7) Z cars running over county roads from Interstate 15 to Santa Isabel on State 67 and back to the coast by Lake Henshaw on State 76 to Oceanside. Lunch at 101 Café was fabulous and enjoyed by all.

This month's event will be something a little different. The club will be visiting the Barona Speedway to see ¼ mile dirt track racing. Event details later in a special flyer.

Review the ZCSD Event Schedule page as there are some changes. Most notable is the Annual Picnic is now scheduled for July 17, 2022.

Be healthy, be safe!

Z you on the road.

Michael

I would like to welcome Doug Byrns to the club. Doug has a 1974 silver 260 Z. Hopefully Doug can show off his Z at our meeting.

Doug had problems getting our discount at motorsport. When you call, give them your membership number. Then if they have a problem they will contact

Michael or myself to verify the number. Motorsport does not give a 10% off across the board. Some items have a discount built into the price all ready.

It was brought to my attention that motorsport doesn't have new choke cables for the 240Z anymore. Z Car Source of Arizona does rebuild choke cables using your cable. They also rebuild turn signal and head light switches. I have not used them yet, but I need my turn signal and head light switches rebuilt. Only send them virgin items, they will not rebuild something that someone has already worked on.

Z ya at the next meeting Chuck

ZCSD BACK COUNTRY CRUZ TO 101 CAFÉ, OCEANSIDE
APRIL 23, 2022

Clif and Marcia were in Hawaii, Lenny and Sheri were home sick, so Michael stepped up to the plate and put on the Cruz, with input from Dennis. It was a gorgeous day for a drive and 6 Z's met up off the I-15.

We zipped past wildflowers and stopped in Ramona where Dennis joined up and led us on past Dudley's (were some stopped for treats). Everyone joined back up at the Santa Ysabel Nature Center.

They have a really nice little museum with information and pictures about the history of the area.
