As I write the message the weather service says we have one more storm to go. I hope it stops soon so we can all enjoy driving our Zs in the sunshine again.

Last month's run, to Borrego Springs to view the desert blooms happened on a very nice sunny and warm day. There were 5 cars that had a great drive to Christmas Circle with an obligatory stop at Dudley's. Lunch was fantastic in the warm sun with minimal shade. It was great to see flowers again on the desert floor.

This month we will be cruising to Campo Truck Museum on Saturday, April 22nd. Hopefully, this trip will be sunny and not raining like the last time we visited this museum. Event details are later in this newsletter.

Be healthy, be safe!

Z you on the road.

MARCH 7TH, GENERAL MEETING

ZCSD BORREGO SPRINGS RUN

MARCH 26TH, 2023

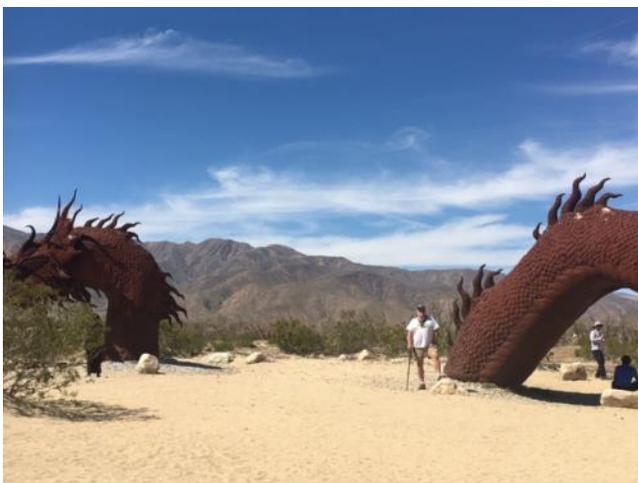

WOW! The club board could not have chosen a better day if they tried. Starting at our favorite Chevron gas station/snack store/restroom four cars took off for The Barn. After picking up Dennis and Carol we headed to Dudley's for sandwiches, bread, cookies and drinks. Then we headed for Montezuma grade where we bypassed the look out as we did not want to get behind the rv rig again that we had passed just before going down the grade. Once on the desert floor we headed for the Nature Center, but it was too crowded with no parking so we headed for Christmas Circle for lunch. What a perfect day to have a picnic in the desert with plenty of sunshine, not too hot and no wind to blow us around. We all had a wonderful lunch with live background music coming from the other side of Christmas Circle. After lunch it was off to visit the sculptors and the
