THE PREZ SAYZ

The long awaited trip to the Petersen Auto Museum has come and gone, and it was worth the wait. If you didn't get to go, I strongly recommend that you make the drive up to LA and visit this awesome museum. You won't be disappointed. There is something there for every auto enthusiast.

This month we have a poker Run put on by Clif Yaussi. Get you Z cars tuned up, its spring and time to start driving again. The poker Run is a good way to get out and exercise your Z car. It should be fun, and you could win $100! Who doesn't like to win money?

We will have a guest speaker at this month's meeting from HRP Hose and Rubber

Products. Get ready to be educated on the latest and greatest automotive products that they sell. I hope to Z y'all at this month's meeting.

Hello club members and friends, we have a nice invitation to display our beloved Z cars for a group of students coming from Japan. Is an cultural exchange opportunity to show our Z cars to who will be the future NISSAN Automobile Technician. They chose the Z cars in SOCAL as their target group, so lets put a good display of our pride and joy ,beautiful Z cars. Also will like a few nice Datsun model other than a Z car, i.e.. Roadsters, 510, etc....

I will need your R.S.V.P. by end of April , we like at least 30 cars , send your confirmation to:

March 2017 General Meeting

March 2017 ZCSD General Meeting had a great turn out

The cars at the parking lot made a good display

Petersen Museum

The Petersen Museum was a great event, beautiful cars on display on the exhibit floors, but even a better display in their Vault private tour.

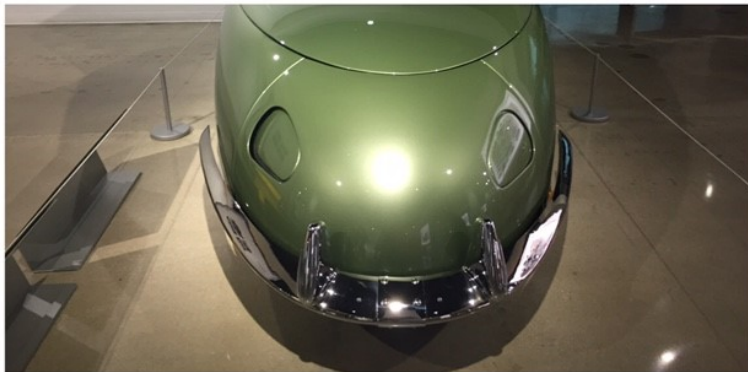

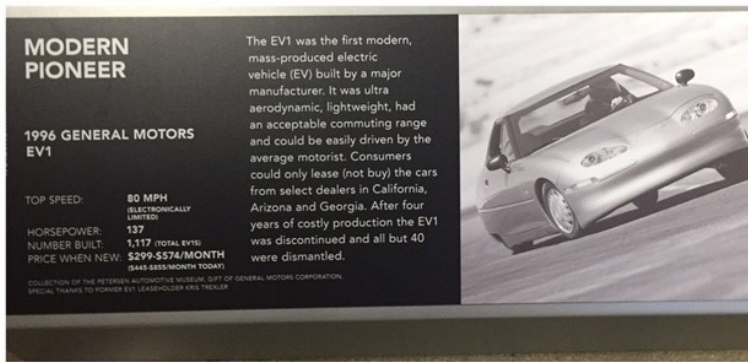

Beautiful cars and great variety , from JDM, muscle cars to TV and movie cars

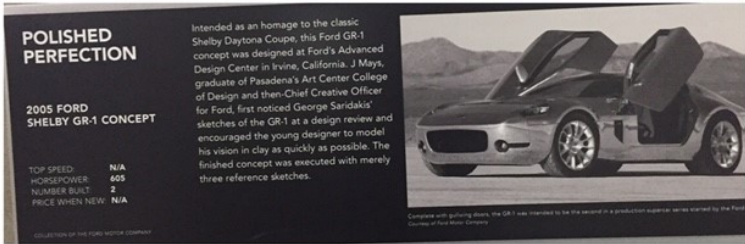

From the Batmobile, Batcycle , Back to the Future to Herby they are all in there

One of the first production and successful electric cars

Mc Queen was present too

HYBRID HYPERCAR

2015 MCLAREN P1

TOP SPEED: 217 MPH
HORSEPOWER: 903
NUMBER BUILT: 375
PRICE WHEN NEW: $1.3 MILLION

Building on McLaren's 50 years of racing history, McLaren Design Director and Art Center College of Design graduate Frank Stephenson designed the P1 to be the ultimate hypercar. Among only 375 P1s built, chassis 168 is a unique example as it was the only McLaren P1 to be ordered with visible carbon fiber on all body panels from the McLaren Production Centre. Beneath the aerodynamic body is a twin-turbo V-8 engine paired with an electric motor, making it McLaren's first hybrid hypercar.

The P1 employs active aerodynamics in the rear wing and underbody effects to maximize downforce and an ABS for better handling. Both are limited to P1 racing for going down a performance advantage.

A NEW MODEL OF SUCCESS

1997 PORSCHE 911 GT1

TOP SPEED: 200 MPH (est.)
HORSEPOWER: 600
NUMBER BUILT: 3
PRICE WHEN NEW: N/A

The Porsche GT1 is the first mid-engine 911, and the first 911 to feature a water-cooled engine. Porsche constructed a small series of three GT1s for the 1997 FIA GT Championship, all of which were based on 911 GT2 Works team cars. This car (Chassis #101) competed at Le Mans, Sebring and Laguna Seca. It also won the Three Hours of Zhuhai in China and successfully competed in the British GT Series. An unusually successful car, the GT1 ultimately won eight races and achieved 21 podium finishes of the 36 competitions in which it was entered.

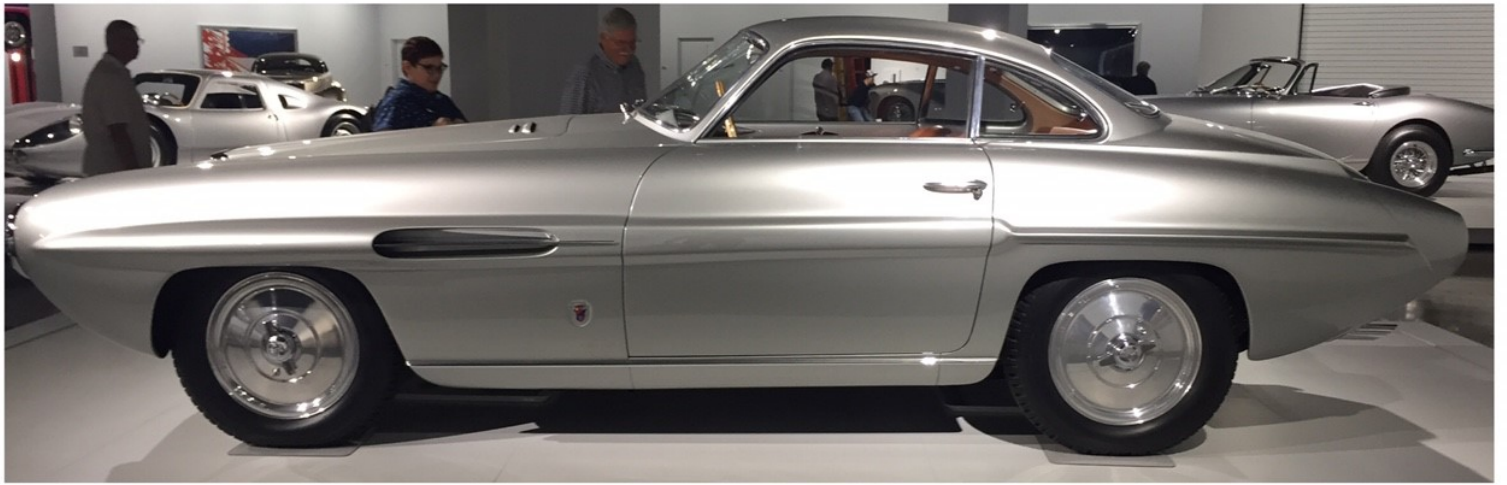

GT1 has been restored to the original colors as presented in Michael's Photo and used in the FIA Championship and at Le Mans.

THE FINISHED QUATTROPORTE

2016 MASERATI QUATTROPORTE S Q4 V6

TOP SPEED:	171 MPH
HORSEPOWER:	404
NUMBER BUILT:	N/A
PRICE WHEN NEW:	$117,000

Since its debut in 1963, the Quattroporte has expressed Maserati's history of technological innovation, distinctive design and hard-fought racing success. Its namesake four doors welcome driver and passengers into a plush interior that is matched with a powerful engine. The first Italian automaker to pair sports car attributes with the space and comfort of a sedan, Maserati continues to offer a mix of elegance and performance with the sixth generation of Quattroporte models.

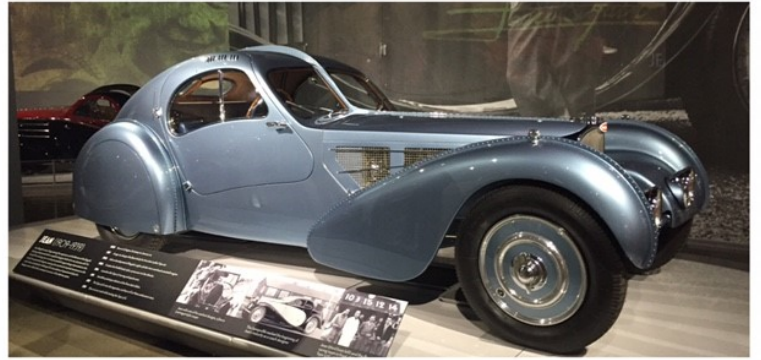

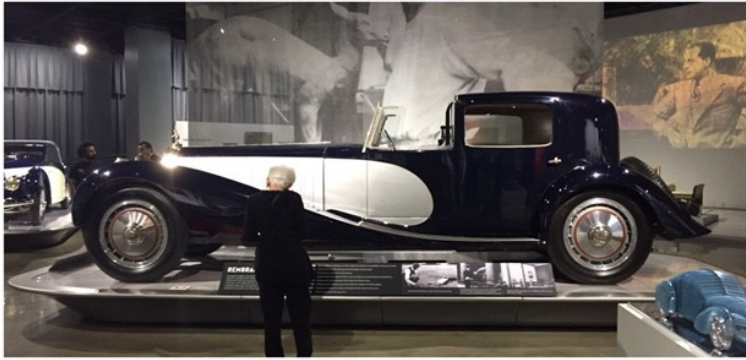

This is a very slick design one of my favorite cars in the market
