THE PREZ SAYZ

So spring is in full swing, and I hope you all are giving your Z cars some exercise.

They like to be driven you know, not just parked in the garage looking pretty. We had a great turn out for Clif's Poker Run. I think about 15 Z cars and their drivers tried their best at getting a royal flush. I'm not sure what the winning hand was but the Gould's won $100. Not bad for having some fun driving your Z car on a beautiful day. The Bottom Buster Run was also a great success as always. A wide variety of cars, as well as a few Z cars in the mix. Some beautiful weather, classic cars, and good friends. Who wouldn't want to put in about 1,000 miles of driving in a few days.

This month we are hosting 135 students from the Nissan Aichi Automobile

Technology College located in Japan. They will be meeting us at San Dieguito

Park where we are putting on a mini car show for them on May 20th.

This should be a fun event and give us a chance to show off our pride and joy Datsun and Nissan cars. If you want to display your car, please talk to David Gonzalez so he can get you signed up.

We will have a 50/50 and raffle at this month's meeting, so bring some cash. I've also got some new trivia questions to try and stump you with. Until then, Z you on the road.

The Poker Run was a great event with a very good attendance. We started at the 'ACE' hardware store. Follow the "4 Clover leave" exit loop in 805 and Clairemont mesa Blvd for some good luck charm and proceed to Coronado Island.

One of the stop was the beautiful Chula Vista Olympic Center

“Love cars, Love people, Love life” with Mike Rocha and Jesyka Kozero Churchill

Last stop was the Sycuan Casino where the best poker hand was revealed and the winner got one hundred dollars

The food was great

Thanks to Mike and Bonnie Rocha that made the trip all the way from Victorville to cruise with us at the Poker Run. This are some of the awesome photos that Mike took during the run.
