Sad news from Japan. Yoshihiko Matsuo, the designer of the original 240Z, passed away July 11, 2020, one day after his 87th birthday. For someone who had a considerable impact on the automotive world, he was a humble, gracious, quiet person. I was fortunate to have spent some one on one time with him at ZCON, and I will cherish those moments. RIP Matsuo-san.

For July's club run ZCSD joined Empire Z for their 2020 Avocado Run to Z Café and Bates Nut Farm. There were 18 cars and four of those belonged to ZCSD. It was great to see the Mike Rocha and members of Empire Z again. Johnny Gable and her son, Kenny, were also in attendance.

The club run for this month is scheduled on August 16th and will be our annual Idyllwild run. Baring any government health order changes, I'm planning on having this run. An email blast will be sent out with the run information prior to the run.

Be healthy, be safe!

Z you on the road.

Michael

ZCON CONVENTIONS OF THE PAST

BY CLIF YAUSSI

This year's ZCON convention is in Nashville Tennessee once again, and whether they will be able to conduct it seems iffy. We thought a look back at past conventions, held in the summer usually, would be a way to fill the newsletter and show you some faces that are now old, but you might recognize them, and then the cars are always show stoppers.

Gary Anderberg holding up the St. Louis Arch

Our club founder, Gary Anderberg, had agreed to host the 1994 convention here in San Diego, but our club of 20, (a convention committee of about 8) only Gary had ever been to a convention. So in the summer of 1993 he and I flew out to St. Louis to observe and soak up the details (and sweat, 100% humidity) of the convention.

Some of the same people are still coming to conventions, what loyalty!

With our rental car Gary and I entered the Time and Distance Road Rallye. Gary had won the year before so his reputation was on the line.

The Mississippi River had overrun it's banks, and the rallye committee had to redo the route 3 times. We won, with Gary driving and me navigating through the backroads of Missouri.

ZCON CAR SHOW

The president of the St. Louis Z club had been a tremendously enthusiastic guy, and sadly passed away of a heart attack later that year. The national Z organization named the trophy that is passed from hosting club to hosting club in his honor. The Mike Breeding Memorial Trophy.
