Summer almost over and the kids are back in school. Our back-country roads should now have fewer cars which makes better driving for us. I know, only in our dreams. Hope everyone is enjoying time with family and their Z cars.

At the August meeting, Lenny gave an overview of last month's ZCCA convention in Branson, MO which included a picture show. Next year's convention will be in Nashville, TN, on September 14-19, 2020.

The run to Idyllwild was a great run with seven cars from Empire Z and six cars from ZCSD. We had a special guest in the one Johnny Gable and her son Kenny. The weather was perfect, and the roads were mostly open, i.e., not too crowded, on the way up the mountain. Back down was a different story at least for me. Lunch was good, and the restaurant was able to accommodate everyone.

This month's event will be the JCCS show on Saturday the 21st in Long Beach. I believe Johnny Gable and her son Kenny are scheduled to be there, so it should be a good show.

Now, let's drive those Z's.

Michael

Days are getting shorter as we approach the end of summer. The trip to Idyllwild was a great time. Dennis had us navigating 100s of miles of back roads to get there. Great fun!

Jeff Smith of Tailored Customs has delivered the back order of long sleeved club shirts. Also we now have the grey polo shirts in. 6 XL, and 2 each of 2XL and 3XL. If interested come to the meeting, as I will be handing them off to Dennis for purchase.
